

XM Instant Traffic and weather on satellite radio offers a service that is currently not available through standard radio broadcast. It helps keep me and many other subscribers out of dangerous and time wasting traffic problems. Satellite radio is a great service that is paid for by its subscribers. The market should decide whether it succeeds or fails. I respectfully urge you to let the market decide by rejecting the NAB's petition 04-160.

Thanks,

David Hostetter